What is Kaizen?

Kaizen is a system of continuous improvement in quality, technology, processes, company culture, productivity, safety and leadership.

Kaizen was created in Japan following World War II. The word Kaizen means "continuous improvement". It comes from the Japanese words 改 ("kai") which means "change" or "to correct" and 善 ("zen") which means "good".

Kaizen is a system that involves every employee - from upper management to the cleaning crew. Everyone is encouraged to come up with small improvement suggestions on a regular basis. This is not a once a month or once a year activity. It is continuous. In most cases these are not ideas for major changes. Kaizen is based on making little changes on a regular basis: always improving productivity, safety and effectiveness while reducing waste.

Kaizen bootcamp

The Kaizen bootcamp approach accelerates the continuous improvement process for a focused period. Like a power surge to cut costs. Reduce waste. Reduce maintenance costs. Improve customer satisfaction. Kaizen bootcamp accomplishes all of this and more by focusing on creating new ideas to achieve continual improvement through small changes in an accelerated way.

The Kaizen Bootcamp assigns a team of specialised people to add value to our customers, by eliminating waste and improving processes

“CHANGE WILL NOT COME
IF WE WAIT FOR SOME OTHER PERSON OR SOME OTHER TIME. WE ARE THE ONES WE’VE BEEN WAITING FOR. WE ARE THE CHANGE THAT WE SEEK ”
